The phrase "AA came to believe" originates from the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous, a guiding framework for recovery. The Twelve Steps are a set of spiritual principles designed to help individuals recover from alcoholism by fostering honesty, humility, and spiritual growth.

The phrase appears in the AA tradition as a reflection of the collective and individual journeys of faith and trust. For many members, this moment marks the realization that they cannot control their addiction alone and that surrendering to a higher power can lead to freedom from alcohol.
