- External Environment: Analyzing macro-environmental factors using frameworks like PESTEL (Political, Economic, Social, Technological, Environmental, Legal).
- Market Research and Data Collection: Techniques for gathering relevant market data, customer insights, and competitor intelligence.

Wood emphasizes that a thorough situational analysis lays the groundwork for informed decision-making and strategic positioning.

Part 3: Defining Marketing Objectives and Target Markets

Clear objectives are critical for directing marketing efforts. This part explores:

- Setting SMART Objectives: Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound goals.
- Segmentation, Targeting, and Positioning (STP):

- Segmentation: Dividing the broader market into distinct groups based on demographics, psychographics, behaviors, and geographics.

- Targeting: Selecting the most viable segments to serve based on attractiveness and company capabilities.

- Positioning: Developing a unique value proposition and positioning statement to differentiate the offering.

Wood provides practical guidelines for conducting segmentation analysis and crafting compelling positioning statements that resonate with target audiences.

Part 4: Developing the Marketing Strategies

This section focuses on translating objectives into actionable strategies, including:

- Product Strategy: Decisions about product features, branding, lifecycle management, and innovation.

- Pricing Strategy: Approaches like cost-plus, value-based, and competitive pricing. Considerations include elasticity, perceived value, and market conditions.

- Distribution (Place) Strategy: Channels, logistics, and distribution networks that ensure product availability.

- Promotion Strategy: Integrated marketing communications encompassing advertising, sales promotion, personal selling, public relations, and digital marketing.

Wood underscores the importance of aligning strategies across the marketing mix (the 4 Ps) to create a cohesive and effective plan.

Part 5: Action Plans and Implementation

A strategic plan is only as good as its execution. This part offers detailed guidance on:

- Developing Action Plans: Specific activities, timelines, budgets, and responsibilities.

- Resource Allocation: Ensuring sufficient human, financial, and technological resources are assigned.

- Monitoring and Control: Establishing KPIs (Key Performance Indicators), feedback mechanisms, and contingency plans.

The emphasis on implementation processes highlights the importance of coordination, communication, and flexibility.

Part 6: Evaluation and Control

Effective evaluation ensures the marketing plan remains relevant and achieves its objectives. Topics include:

- Performance Metrics: Sales figures, market share, customer satisfaction, brand awareness, and digital analytics.
- Regular Review Cycles: Frequency of evaluations, adjusting strategies based on market feedback and performance data.
